People entitled to attend the Extraordinary General Meeting are requested to register and pick up voting cards immediately before the commencement of the meeting.

Electronic communication between shareholders and the Company is carried out via e-mail to: walne@grupatrakcja.com.

§ Shareholder's right to request that specific issues be included in the agenda of the Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders

A shareholder or shareholders representing at least one-twentieth of the share capital may request that specific issues be included in the agenda of the Extraordinary General Meeting. The request of a shareholder or shareholders should be submitted to the Management Board of the Company not later than twenty-one days before the date of the General Meeting (till 20 November 2019). The request should include grounds for the request or draft resolutions regarding the proposed agenda. The request must be accompanied by documents confirming the right to submit the request. The request may be submitted in writing or in electronic form via e-mail to walne@grupatrakcja.com.

§ Shareholder's right to submit draft resolutions on issues included in the agenda of the Extraordinary General Meeting or matters which are to be introduced to the agenda before the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting

A shareholder or shareholders representing at least one-twentieth of the share capital of the Company may, before the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting, submit to the Company in writing or electronically to the email: walne@grupatrakcja.com, draft resolutions concerning matters put on the agenda of the Extraordinary General Meeting or matters to be put on the agenda. They must be accompanied by documents confirming the right to submit the request. The Company shall promptly publish the draft resolutions on its website.

§ Shareholder's right to submit draft resolutions concerning matters introduced to the agenda during the Extraordinary General Meeting

Each shareholder may, during the Extraordinary General Meeting, propose draft resolutions on issues included in the agenda.

§ Manner of exercising voting rights by proxy

A shareholder who is a natural person may participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting and exercise his/her voting rights in person or by proxy. A shareholder who is not a natural person may participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting and exercise its voting right through a person authorized to make statements on its behalf, or by proxy.

A proxy may exercise all rights of the shareholder at the Extraordinary General Meeting, unless the power of attorney provides for otherwise. A proxy may grant further proxies, if the power of attorney grants such a right. A proxy may represent more than one shareholder and vote differently for each shareholder. The shareholder holding shares that are registered in more than one securities account may appoint separate proxies to exercise the rights attached to shares held in each account.

A power of attorney to attend the Extraordinary General Meeting and exercise voting rights should be granted in writing or electronically.

A power of attorney authorizing to participate and exercise voting rights must be served as original or certified copy no later than on the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting (until 8:30 a.m.). At least one day before the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting, not later than till 10 December 2019, the shareholder shall notify the Company of the fact of granting a power of attorney (whatever its form is), by sending information via e-mail to: walne@grupatrakcja.com. The power of attorney should be sent in such a way as to ensure effective verification of its validity. For this reason, for example the power of attorney granted in writing sent by e-mail should be scanned into a PDF file. A notification on granting power of attorney should contain details of the proxy and the principal, indicating the following details:

- for natural persons: forename(s), surname, series and number of identity card, address, phone number, and e-mail address;
- for other entities: name (business name), number of registration with the relevant register, address, phone number and e-mail address. For legal persons, the power of attorney should be accompanied with a certified copy of an entry into the relevant register, scanned to a PDF file and not older than 3 months. The information on granting the power of attorney should also include its scope, i.e. specify the number of shares, on which voting right will be exercised, and the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting, during which these rights will be exercised. Granting power of attorney in electronic form does not require a secure electronic signature.

The Company reserves the right to take action in order to identify the shareholder and the proxy, and verify the validity of a produced power of attorney granted in electronic form. The verification process may involve asking the shareholder or proxy about specific questions, electronically or by telephone, in order to determine the power of attorney and its scope. If a shareholder or proxy fails to confirm the fact of granting the power of attorney, or if the Company does not receive answers to the questions asked no later than on the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting (until 8:30 a.m.), the Company reserves the right to refuse to allow the proxy to participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting.

A written power of attorney (sequence of powers of attorney) granted by a shareholder that is not a natural person should be accompanied by a copy of the entry into the relevant register (original or a copy certified as true copy), not older than 3 months, confirming the right to represent the shareholder.

A current copy of the entry into register kept for a shareholder who is not a natural person should contain entries relating to people granting the power of attorney on behalf of the shareholder who is not a natural person.

Members of the Management Board and employees of the Company may be proxies of a shareholder at the Extraordinary General Meeting.

If a member of the Management Board, member of the Supervisory Board, liquidator, an employee of the Company or a member of governing bodies or employee of a company or cooperative that is subsidiary of the Company is a proxy at the Extraordinary General Meeting, the power of attorney may authorize to represent only during one General Meeting. A proxy is obliged to disclose to the shareholder the circumstances indicating the existence or possibility of a conflict of interest. Granting further proxy is excluded. Such a proxy shall vote in accordance with instructions given by the shareholder.
